"The Prophet's words were true; The mouth of Ali is the golden door of Wisdom." When his friends to Ali bore these words, he smiled And said: "And should they ask the same until my dying day, The task were easy; for the stream from Wisdom's well, Which God supplies, is inexhaustible."

Time Brings with It Many Changes

The 1965-1966 school year brought about many changes. The building and completion of the new gymnasium, cafetorium and six additional classrooms was witnessed with enthusiasm and great pride by all.

Look not mournfully into the Past; it comes not back again.
Wisely improve the Present; it is thine.
Go forth to meet the shadowy Future without fear
And with a manly heart.

Longfellow

Memory is when you look back and the answers float in to who? what? when? where? The various doors and entrances of our high school remained open and welcomed us to complete one more year of our education. For some it was only the beginning of a climb, for others it was that year-in-between and for many it marked the end of a life known so well and a new beginning for the future. The doors of OCHS beckoned us and we answered their calling.

The Ghost staff of '66 presents this yearbook as the imprints our school has made upon us, and a record of the imprints we are leaving upon OCHS. We, the staff, present this book as your with the hope that our efforts were not in vain. May you always relive every page when you view it and treasure your Ghost of '66 as something precious.

Annabel, AFS Student, Becomes One of Us at OCHS

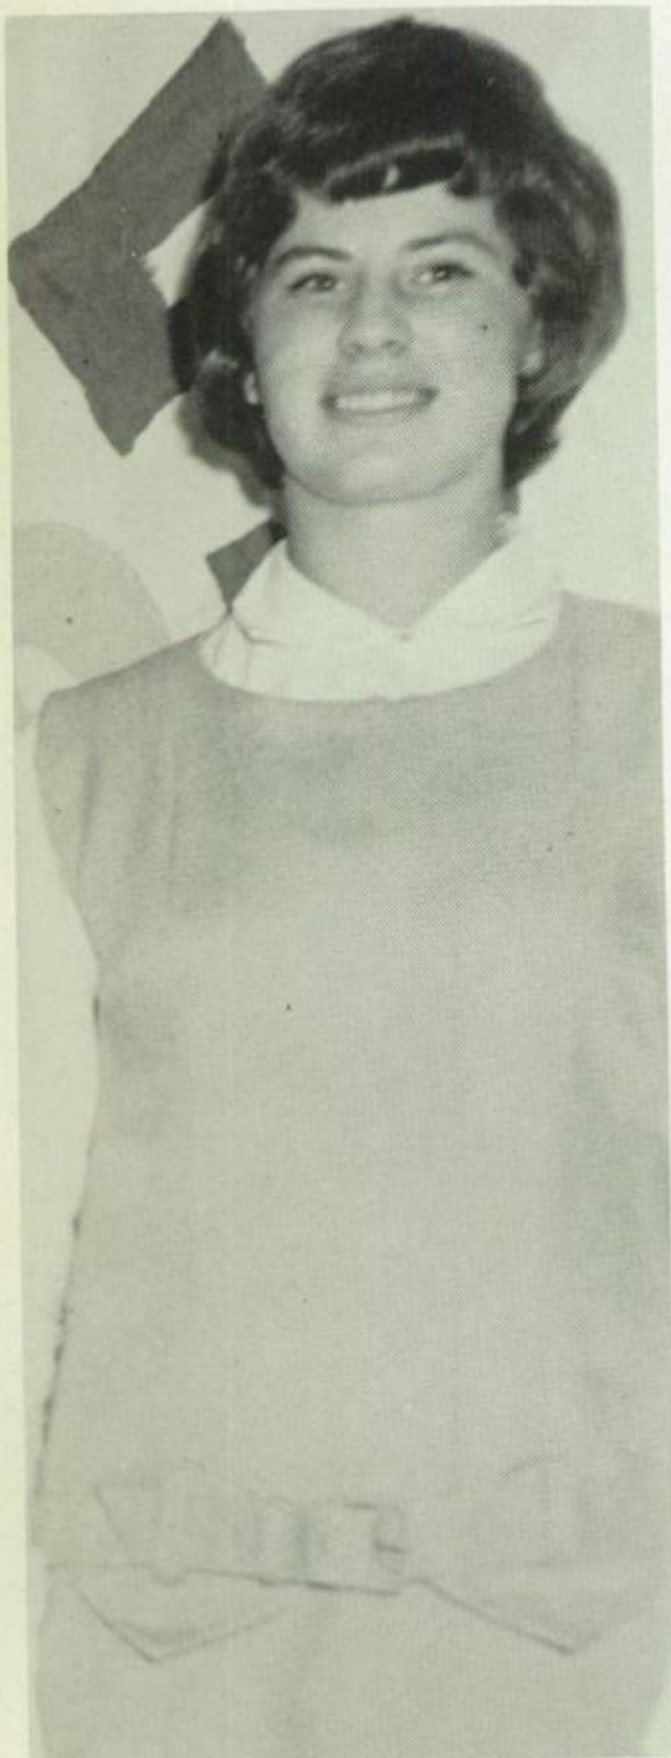

Miss Annabel Worthley, the foreign exchange student at OCHS for 1965-1966, is from Adelaide, South Australia. Annabel lived with the Lyle Pleshek family in Oelwein. Her sister in America was senior Ann Pleshek. Other "family members" here were Jane, 15, and Richard, 21, and Mr. and Mrs. Pleshek.

Before attending OCHS, Annabel studied at Walford Church of England Girls' Grammar School. Her interests there were tennis, basketball, library staff, music club, ballet, school plays and the student Christian movement. Her activities are much the same at OCHS. Here she is the senior class treasurer, B.P.W. representative, vocal music student, Homecoming queen candidate, student council member, pep club member and participates in Y-Teens.

Her Australian family includes her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Worthley, Christopher, 16; David 10; and Belinda, 8. Her father is a development's manager of a chemical industry.

Having graduated from school in Australia, she hopes to obtain a degree in history and psychology. Annabel would like to work with people. She says her purpose for being here is to act as ambassador for Australia and to promote peace and understanding between countries.

Seeing Annabel's pleasant smile and happy greeting daily at OCHS, we have all learned to call her a true and wonderful friend. Oelwein was very lucky indeed to have had such a great foreign student living with us.

Cheerleaders Spark School Spirit - Spur Teams to Success

Every team needs a fearless leader to follow, and every school needs energetic cheerleaders to set an example and start the ball "a-rollin." OCHS has six of these go-getters for 1965-1966. School spirit, pep, energy and victory became words to shout, be proud of and no longer shunned. It all started with a few ideas, lots of ambition and the cheerleading squad.

Cheryl McIntosh, senior

1965-1966 Varsity Cheerleading Squad

Sharon Buhr, junior

Margaret Doughty, senior

Jane Proctor, junior

Susan Sheahan, junior

Three substitutes are ready to fill in any vacancy on the varsity squad. This year they are Penny Smith, junior; Kathy Shinneman, senior; and Kathy Bigley, senior.

Signs were in every hall at OCHS before any athletic event. Captain of the squad, Margaret Doughty, and her co-workers and many pep rallies with skits, rousing cheers, stirring speeches and the OCHS pep band. Put them all together and the action that generated was enough for the whole student body to feel.

Connie Chase, junior

Some schools naturally have school spirit though it seems every school should! Until this year OCHS has been lacking a unity and feeling of pride in our school. All of the combined efforts: pep rallies, dances, skits, signs, announcements, speeches, and cheers are not in vain any longer. School spirit is no longer a word of the past!

Queen Cheryl and Her

Annabel Worthley, our American Field Service student from Australia, is living with the Lyle Pleshek family in Oelwein. Annabel is one of the active seven girls chosen to be queen candidates.

Cheryl McIntosh, senior at Oelwein Community High School, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McIntosh, Oelwein, was chosen the 1965 Homecoming queen. Cheryl and her court were announced during half-time ceremonies of the Oelwein-Decorah football game.

The entire student body of tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades voted. Terry Granneman, senior class president, presented each escort with a corsage for his attendant to the queen, and gave Queen Cheryl her traditional kiss and dozen roses.

The new queen and her court were introduced during intermission at the Homecoming dance which was held at the Junior High in the gym on September 17, 1965. Dancing was from 9:45 to 11:00. Music was provided by Jack Mihall and refreshments and decorations were done by the junior class.

A pep rally at 3:00 gave the students that necessary pep, vigor and enthusiasm associated with any homecoming. A Homecoming parade was held Friday, September 17, at 3:30 p.m. Eleven clubs and organizations had floats or units marching. Queen candidates rode in convertibles as did the mayor.

Leading the parade was the OCHS marching band. In the football game at 7:45 that night, Oelwein defeated Decorah to add the finishing touches for a most memorable homecoming--1965!

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Olander, Beth Olander, was another senior queen candidate.

Royal Court Reign

The Reverend and Mrs. Richard Emery are the proud parents of senior queen candidate Debby Emery.

Debby Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Elliott, is another senior class queen candidate.

Mary Riche, queen candidate from the senior class, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riche.

Mr. and Mrs. James McKnight are the parents of one more senior class queen candidate Lynda McKnight.

Homecoming Leaves Lasting Memories

The Secretarial Club had a float in the traditional Homecoming parade on September 17. Riding the float were future secretaries Karen Baker, Connie Claney, Marilyn Houser, Doris Bommert, Fern Carnicle, Vicki Streittmatter and Kay Sheahan.

1965 Homecoming Queen Cheryl McIntosh reigned over the homecoming dance on her royal throne. Throne decorations were done by the Thespians.

LEFT: Familiar faces are seen on the dance floor at the Junior High gym as alumni returned to participate in the high school festivities.

LOWER LEFT: Thespians used originality in the theme of their walking float. "Eat 'em with fire," said the dragon!

LOWER RIGHT: Susie Shirk is caught in the act of decorating the throne and gym at the Junior High where the traditional dance was held. Juniors worked feverishly and rewarded all with fascinating decorations.

LOWER RIGHT: Stuffing colored kleenex in a float is much work and time consuming. Seniors Carolyn Swarts, Debby Elliott, Terry Granne-man, Mary Riche and Pat Hamilton "slave" on their senior float.

Student Council Governs OCHS;

SEATED: Mr. Kraft, sponsor; Dave Mulder, Parliamentarian; Roger Bayness, Vice-President; Cheryl McIntosh, Recording Secretary; Linda Johnson. ROW ONE: Mr. Haas, sponsor; Mrs. Greenley, sponsor; Harley Williams, Becky McLeish, Treasurer; Beth Olander, Corresponding Secretary; Jim Hennager, President; Lynda McKnight, Peggy Nicolay, Historian; Kathi Kendall, Mr. Hutchinson, sponsor. ROW TWO: Bob Rasmussen, Roxanne Franks, Mark Nicolay, Cindy Hennager, Rosa Lea Mulford, Annabel Worthley, Dave Miller, Steve Dougherty. ROW THREE: Jon Proctor, Steve Musson.

Student council members contemplate problems concerning the government of the student body. This year the student council is building school spirit by encouraging the students to buy school sweaters and berets. The sweaters are Lamb-knit with a crew neck and come in the traditional school color of gold. The berets are purple and they come with a gold letter O for the student to sew on the top. Sweaters and berets were purchased through Baum's Clothing Store in downtown Oelwein. These outfits were appropriately worn by students on the days of games or meets. It was very inspiring to see school spirit "walking the halls".

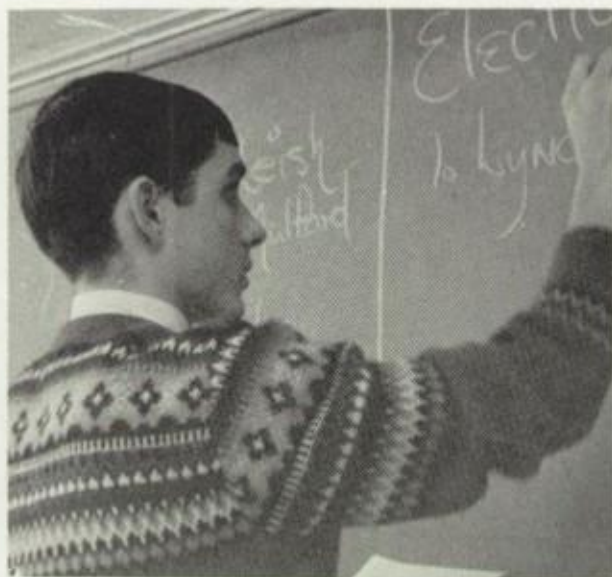

At Christmas time a care package from the students at OCHS and sponsored by the Student Council was sent to the soldiers and people of South Viet Nam.

Meetings are held bi-weekly on a rotation schedule covering every hour of the day over a period of fourteen weeks.

Christmas decorations were also put up by the members.

Forms Rules of Student Behavior

RIGHT: Roger Bayness, Vice-President of the 1965-1966 student council is also the senior class representative. He is shown presenting these student council working committees.

Student Body President Jim Hennager was elected from a field of three other candidates. The entire student body of tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades voted.

Sophomore representative Harley Williams is active on this year's council. Each class elects six members to represent their class.

JCL Students Further Latin Studies

ABOVE: The Junior Classical League is made up of Latin students. Their sponsor and teacher is Mrs. Peters. Marcia Snively also listens to one of the speeches given at the banquet.

RIGHT: Carolyn Swarts, Patty Hamilton and Gale Dawson listen to Janelle Andrew give her musical solo in Latin.

JCL members brought favorite dishes to the banquet feast which was held at the senior high school in the lunch room. First year Latin students came as slaves. Second year students were gods and goddesses of their own choosing. The slaves were compelled to make good all the wishes of every god or goddess.

The theme for the sales campaign this year was SPACE. Signs were in the halls and a huge red rocket and launching pad were in the main hallway. LEFT: Dee Powell and Kathi Kendall "man their stations" inside the rocket before students begin buying their GHOSTS. RIGHT: Greeting students as they entered the high school were these signs on the doors. Record breaking statistics were achieved as 600 annuals were ordered for 1966.

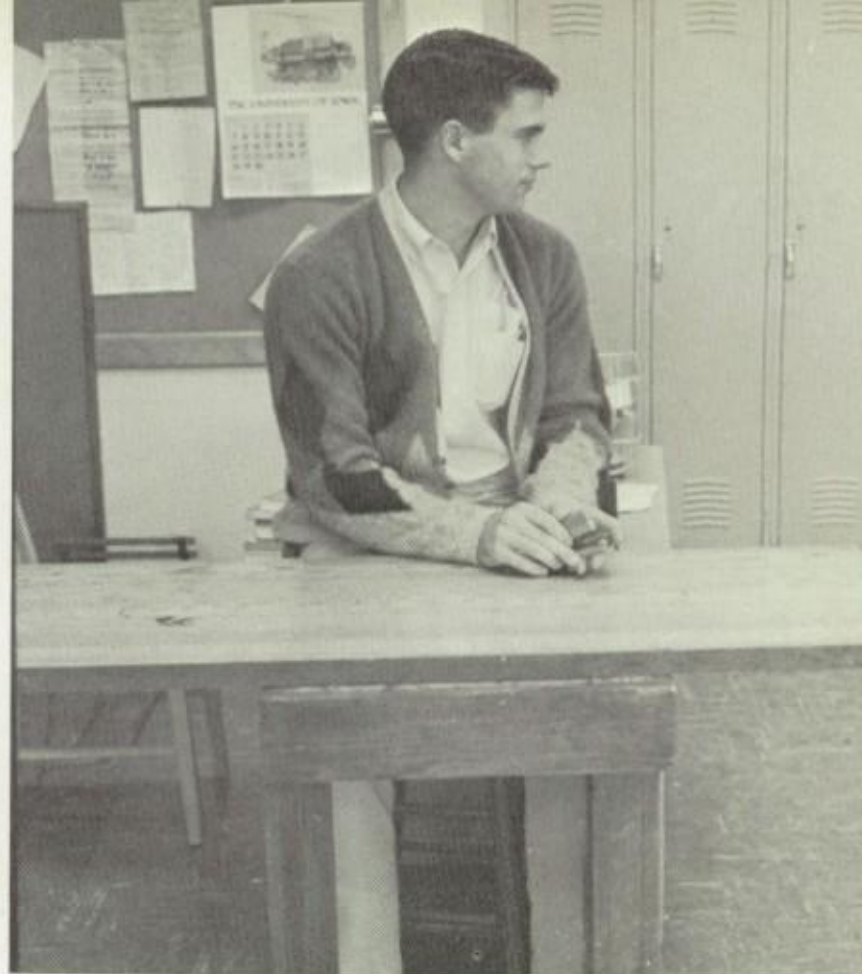

Every organization takes much extra time and loyal hours of devotion to the "cause." For the twenty year-book staff members, this "cause" was the 1966 Ghost. Meetings were held on the first and third Monday of each month. Sponsors are Miss Voigts and Mr. McGowan.

LEFT: Dee Powell and Debbie Elliott suffer through the trials and tribulations of the annual initiation of new members. "Ceremonies" were held after the fall picnic for the new staff. RIGHT: "Drinking their pop the hard way" because of an uncooperating pop machine are Debbie Elliott, Jane Proctor, John Theobald, Kathi Kendall, Dee Powell and Debby Elliott.

Miss Voigts, journalism advisor at OCHS, is one of the new faculty members and faces seen at the high school this year. Kathy Dempster, senior managing editor, looks on also.

UPPER RIGHT: Sports editor of the school paper, Greg Halverson, finds time to "relax" after writing his weekly column "Blood, Sweat and Tears."

Y-Teens Seek Better

The Y-Teens is an organization of high school girls under the sponsorship of the world-wide Y.W.C.A. Membership is open to any girl in the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grade. The 1965-1966 membership is approximately one hundred. Meetings are held on the fourth Wednesday of every month. The Y-Teen goals: ideals of Christian living, solutions for individual problems, good citizenship, service to school and community, leadership and fellowship.

World Through Fellowship

The cabinet is voted into office each year by the previous year's cabinet. It is made up of seven committees: Service, Membership, World Fellowship, Music, Social, Publicity and Worship. Sophomore representatives are nominated by the sophomore members and two are elected by the entire club. Miss Hunter is the sponsor for the group.

Pep Club meetings are held at the senior high school in the first and third Monday of every month. Mrs. Dorzail, girls' physical education teacher, is the sponsor for the organization. A highlight of this '66 club was the increase in membership. A noticeable number of boys joined the ranks and their support was much appreciated.

Our Teams with Loyalty

The signs seen below of Warlock, a fictitious Husky hero, and one saying "We'll ride 'em to a Husky vic-tory," are only two examples of the many displays of spirit. These were seen in the halls before any athletic event. Pep club members attended the games in their newly purchased school sweaters. Such showing of school spirit moved our boys to many victories.

The Pep Club Says:

We Support
Our Huskies!

Sports-minded Pep Club Members Participate: Play Powder Puff Football

LEFT: Seen in one of the numerous huddles held throughout the game are members of Terry's Tornados. They wore the purple jerseys for the battle.

RIGHT: Anxiously awaiting on the sidelines are the defensive team for Bob's Bruisers. Tag football rules were used.

LEFT: One of the three referees for the evening event was Mr. Klatt. Eight minute quarters were played. Bob's Bruisers came out on top beating Terry's Tornados 7-0.

RIGHT: Filling the job as announcer for the crowd-filled stadium was Mr. Norman Miller. He called the plays off as they were run on field. Half-time ceremonies were presented by the 18 piece "band" directed by Douglas McFarlane.

LEFT: Coaches for the losing side of Terry's Tornados were Les Silka, Larry Chaplin and Steve Musson, varsity football players, helping the gals. This was their first loss of the season.

RIGHT: Cheerleaders were, standing, George Gregory, Bob Rasmussen, Dave Ruse, Chuck Gardner for the Bruisers and Hank Vargason, Bruce Kaufmann, Gary Lau and Mic Connor for the tornados.

Leading the band as majorettes this year are: ROW ONE: Colleen Belschner, Beeci McLeish, Gale Dawson, Ann Pleshek. ROW TWO: Rhonda Renfrow, Janelle Andrews, Susan Buenneke and Jane Proctor. During the football season they met every Monday after school to practice for their entertaining half-time performances at the football games. One of the most spectacular shows featured the twirlers in a routine with their fire batons.

The band officers for this year include Jerry James, Linda Johnson, Jim Hennegar, Chris Thiele, Dan Hennegar and Harley Williams. These officers are elected each fall by the entire band. They plan all the extra activities of the band.

Leaders Are Needed in a Band

Here our roving cameraman caught the band in one of their long practice sessions. The band practices many long hours for their concerts, pep band, concert band, marching band, small groups and dance band. The band performs many places throughout the year. With the help of Mr. Mikesh they have put on some fine programs.

Students Present Yearly

Eighty Oelwein Community High School students participate in the band program under the direction of Mr. Milton Mikesh. In late May, during the summer months and beginning school months, the band becomes a marching unit performing in various parades, such as the Dairy Days Parade held in Oelwein. A half-time program is presented at all home football games for the season. Then the band becomes a concert band and presents a winter and spring concert. Band members represent O.C.H.S. at the solo-ensemble contest and large group contest. Most of the instruments are privately owned, but many of the students rent them from the school for a small fee. Daily practice is held first hour in the band room with horns ready to play at the sound of the first buzzer.

ROW FIVE: Dave Miller, Dennis Kjar, Ellen Gerstenberger, Mick Connor, Mr. Mikesh.

Spring and Winter Concerts

Various small band groups are in action throughout the school year. Dance Band, Huskette Band, and Pep Band hold their practices Tuesday and Thursday mornings before school begins. These groups provide music for the home basketball games, background music for the Huskettes, and many other functions throughout the year. Long before small groups contest, brass choirs, clarinet choirs, solos, trios, quartets and other groups start their practice sessions. These practices are held before and after school during the week.

The Oelwein Chapter of the Future Farmers of America for 1965-1966 included 42 members. Meetings were held monthly at the high school. One of the best merits the chapter has earned is their adept use and understanding of parliamentary procedure. This is one of the most active groups at OCHS. Their activities for the year, under the sponsorship of Mr. Wright, are listed below with their emblem.

Through Chorus

BELOW: A surprise picture of the chorus before practice reveals lots of hard workers. Five hours of practice are spent in regular class every week. Many students also put extra hours into private lessons and small groups.

RIGHT: After a performance the work is not nearly complete. Here the president, vice-president, and Mark Bentley, sound manager, straighten the newly purchased choir robes. The chorus participated in all state try-outs, Variety Show, Dorian Festival, sang at the University of Iowa and large and small groups contest.

ABOVE: A cappella choir officers are Doug McFarlane, president; Annabel Worthley, secretary; Debby Elliott, vice-president; Debby Emery, treasurer. The eighty four member choir is divided into five parts.

ABOVE: Girls Glee Club officers are Becky Knief, president; Vicki Pfiester, vice-president; and Kathi Kendall, secretary-treasurer. They occasionally take over the direction of the chorus and organizing ticket sales.

ABOVE: "Yesterday all my troubles seemed so far away." So croons Steve Dougherty in his rendition of Beatle Paul McCartney's smash-hit, "Yesterday."

ABOVE: Darwin Koob, Greg Halverson, Dave Mulder and Jerry Borland make up the group known as the Travelers Four. They performed "House of the Rising Sun" and "Greenback Dollar" in the OCHS music department's Variety A' Go-Go.

These were only two of the thirty acts in the program put on December 9 and 11, 1965 at the Junior High auditorium.

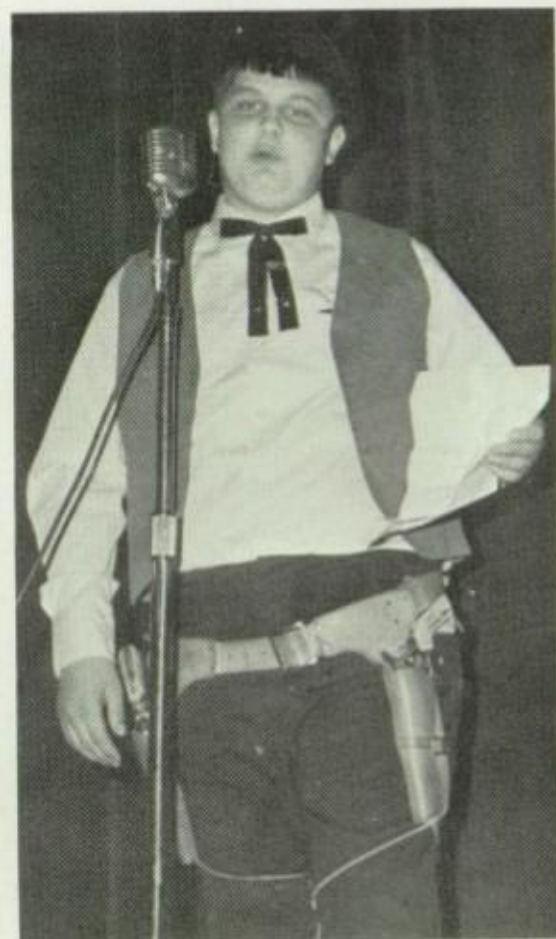

ABOVE: This look of concentration is brought about by the fast moving piano solo, "Sabre Dance." Julie Kaufman, OCHS sophomore, played her solo as part of the cabaret scene.

"Variety 'A Go-Go" Stars OCHS Music Department

The Madrigal singers took us to a Greenwich Village cellar for a cabaret scene. They sang "The Days of Wine and Roses" and "The Thing."

Enjoying the music with concentration are Mary Riche, Debby Emery, Jon Rechkemmer, Cindy Haas, Dave Ruse, Jon Proctor and Lynn Meier. The madrigal group included 17 members.

"Kansas City Star, that's what I are," sang Jim Polark. Jim, a sophomore, made quite a hit at the opening of the show with his number, "Kansas City Star", about a TV star refusing a new job.

TOP RIGHT: A song of protest, "Washington Square" and a French lullabye "Gue, Gue" comprise the folk duet of Debby Emery and Susi Shirk.

LEFT: The program cover design was submitted by art students Gary Rubino, Don Bush and Henry Vargason. Tickets for the shows were sold by acapella chorus and girls' glee club members.

BOTTOM LEFT: "Ride in the Chariot" was given by a boys quartet in the first half of variety A Go-Go. The quartet members are Jon Rechkenner, Dave Ruse, Mark Nicolay and Ron Wilkinson.

MIDDLE BOTTOM: A combo of Cindy Hennager, Bette Riche, Ron Wilkinson, John Goede, Jim Stella, Greg James, Jerry James and Harley Williams played two swinging numbers, "Night Train" and "Basin Street Blues."

BOTTOM RIGHT: How that girl can belt out a song, was heard as Vicki Gruetzmacher stepped up and sang "The Birth of the Blues." Vicki is a senior at OCHS.

The Thespian members hold their monthly meetings at the senior high school in the speech room. This year the members number at 23 active students. Officers elected were President, Dave Mulder; Vice-President, Susan Miller; Secretary, Stephen McCalley; and Historian, Dave Miller. A special project this year was a hay-ride held in the crisp weather of early winter. Tickets were sold to any student wishing to take part in the fun. The annual spring and fall plays are also their regular "projects" each year. Local, district and state contests take up much time after the first of the year. This is indeed one of the very active groups at OCHS.

"Taking time out" are Thespian members standing, Janelle Andrew, Dave Miller, Doug Parker, Stephen McCalley and Jon Rechkemmer. Seated are members Susan Parker and Lynda McKnight. Giving instructions to his attentive group of listeners is Mr. Freyermuth, speech instructor at OCHS and advisor for the Thespian organization.

Becky McLeish, Lynda McKnight, Dave Mulder, Jon Rechkemmer and Kathy Frieden bring to reality the lives of a family in St. Louis. Their problems were recreated with a professional touch at the Junior High auditorium on November 11 and 12, 1965 as the fall play, "Meet Me In St. Louis."

Fall Play Was Smashing Success

RIGHT: Grandpa Stephen McCalley explains that life in his day was something else. Gale Dawson, Jon Rechkemmer, Susan Parker and Susan Miller listen.

LEFT: Also starring were Phil James, Pam Penhollow, Janelle Andrew, Dave Miller and Kathy Frieden in the annual fall play. The Smith family was realistically portrayed as the curtain rose at 8 p.m. on both nights.

Crowds accepted the showing warmly on both showings. Comments were all of praise for the Thespians and their fine acting performance.

Something New Is Now Offered

SEATED AT TYPEWRITERS: Kay Sheahan, Linda Haught, Vicki Streittmatter, Vicki Gruetzmacher, Gayle Roeder, Hazel Larson, Carol Torrey. STANDING: Miss Brinkert.

A new program at OCHS this year is the Office Education club. The girls meet during office problems class and clerical practice or secretarial training. These seven girls hold secretarial jobs in downtown business offices and work the 5th, 6th, and 7th hours of each day. The OE room is room number 7. It is newly and completely equipped with typewriters, adding machines and L-shaped desks and chairs of the latest style. Miss Brinkert is the teacher and sponsor.

The object of the Secretarial Club is to promote enthusiasm for better office work and more interest in the secretarial profession. They meet on the fourth Monday of each month. Students may join if they take either secretarial training or clerical practice. Secretarial training classes include 7 girls while clerical practice classes involve 22 girls. Miss Brinkert is also the sponsor for this club.

STANDING: Hazel Larson, Sandra Loux, Cheryl McIntosh, Karen Baker, Connie Claney, Beth Olander, Linda Haught, Miss Brinkert. SEATED: Kathleen Dempster, Fern Carnicle, Doris Passet, Dixie Quinn, Jeri Peterson, Marilyn Houser, Vicki Gruetzmacher.

STANDING: Larry Moeller, Helen Shields, John Goede, Steve McCalley, Sharon Kennicott, Nancy Rath, Raymond Smith, Becky Knief, Kathy Dempster, Sharon Buhr. SEATED: Jane Leins, Beth Olander, Mrs. Greenley.

Membership on the library staff is strictly on a voluntary basis. It can prove to be an invaluable later experience in life, especially on the college level. There are a total of 12 members this year. Mrs. Greenley is the sponsor in charge.

Staff Spends Devoted Time to Books

BELOW: Explaining the correct procedure used in checking out a book to sophomore Vicki Pfiester are student librarian Kathleen Dempster and Mrs. Greenley, sponsor. Kathleen is also the library typist and types all the cards for the books.

ABOVE: Setting the mood for Christmas at OCHS was this tree and red fireplace located outside of the library doors.

Librarian duties included various points. All books in the Oelwein school system are catalogued at Senior High except those in the Junior High library.

ABOVE: This nativity scene adorned the front library window. Stephen McCalley, senior librarian and window display "committee of one" completed and arranged the scene

The appearance of art work in the display window and around the library makes it look more interesting and somewhat of a cultural center.

Girls Prove Athletic Abilities

Exhausted but satisfied, Julie Kaufman takes a breather in the night's activities. The Junior High gym is used for basketball games. Occasional parties are held throughout the year.

Girls Practice

LEFT: Sponsoring G.R.A. is Mrs. Dixie Dorazil, physical education instructor at OCHS. Officers for the 65-66 school year are Alice Nash, president; Connie Chase, vice-president; and Nancy Olander, secretary-treasurer.

Sportsmanship Through Games

RIGHT: Basketball, softball, volleyball, dodgeball and trampolining. It sounds like fun to be training as an Olympic athlete, but it's really just recreation for the members of the G.R.A.

BELOW: It really isn't Atlas! Here Dee Powell shows her prowess in a game of basketball. The Girl's Recreation Association regularly meets every Thursday night at 7 p.m.

RIGHT: On the line and poised for action these members participate in a rousing game. Any high school girl may join the association.

Prom Is Gone but

Grand March

Starts the Dance . . .

Craig Baumgartner, 1965 senior class president, and Andrea Gregory and Terry Granneman, 1965 junior class president, and Mary Lou Campbell led the Grand March through the Arabic entry-way. Couples paraded round and round in the traditional opening of the prom dance. New suits, beautiful formals and lovely flowers shone in brilliant array. The Arabic mood was enhanced by incense.

Andrea Gregory, Craig Baumgartner, Mary Lou Campbell, Terry Granneman, Janet Teague, Mark Levin, Sylvia Stockwell, Tom Donald, Candi Murphy, Max Anderman, Janet Brownell, Lee Stiles, Lisa Aiello, and Jim Cochran join together, arm-in-arm, as the Grand March progresses. This processional started the evening of memories.

Then the Fun Begins!

The swishing and swirling of long formal skirts was audible as musical strains drifted through the air. The traditional prom banquet began at 6:30 at the Moose Country Home south of Oelwein on Saturday, May 8, 1965. Dancing started at 8:30.

Charlie Trussell and His Orchestra.

Live Music Is Provided by . . .

Live music was provided for the evening by Charlie Trussell and his orchestra. Dancing was from 8:30 - 11:00. Entertainment at the banquet featured soloist Vicki Gruetzmacher and the OCHS swing group.

Palm trees and balloons with painted faces and fez hats are decorations that can be seen.

Cherished Memories Linger

Sitting this one out are Ken Hyman, Eric Tisdale, Bob Briggs, Dennis Smith, Dennis Kjar, Dick Pond, Roger Hardman and Terry Gayler. Faculty members and their wives or husbands were invited to attend the event.

"Moonlight Oasis" was the theme painted on a huge backdrop to carry out the Arabic theme.

You Could Rest Up . . .

Or You Could
Fill Up, Whichever
You Chose . . .

Serving punch to Terry Pepin and Cheryl Wood is Mrs. J. R. Theobald. Refreshments for the dance were planned, fixed and served by junior parents.

Parents were also in charge of the all night events that followed and took place in the Grand Theater and Uptown Elks.

Mary Lou Campbell, Judy Hausman and Jeanne Alden discuss further plans for the post-prom activities.

Merchants gave a free show, "Ride the Wild Surf," and dancing was enjoyed at the Uptown Elks. Records were provided and announced by Dale Wood.

Food was everywhere and snacks were continuous. Many donated prizes were given away throughout the night. Breakfast was served in the "wee hours" by Jaycees. The meal consisted of doughnuts, juice, milk and coffee --a perfect end to a perfect night!

Why Does It
Ever Have to End?

Many Hours Are Spent in Preparation

Everyone Looks Forward to Prom -- That Special "Big" Event

"Moonlight Oasis" set the mood for the Arabian Nights theme of the 1965 prom. Stephen McCalley painted this imaginative scene for the junior class. It is the duty of the juniors to decorate for the banquet and dance.

LEFT: John Theobald uses a ladder and courage to hang colored crepe paper all across the ceiling.

LOWER: Greg Halverson, with Mr. Matthews' assistance, adeptly applied his talent with certain materials to make this striking Aladdin's lamp.

RIGHT: Working Friday night and all day Saturday was a big job! Helping are juniors Ray Smith, Margaret Doughty, Dave Mulder, and Mardelle Huber.

An Arabian "tent" was constructed by Mary Riche and her committee. Cardboard was obtained from helpful merchants, and then painted by willing helpers.

Hazel Larson, Tim Peterson and Mardelle Huber finish last minute jobs on the Arabian shelter. Palm trees accented the exterior while pillows adorned the interior.

The Cast

"The Mouse That Roared," a captivating story of the Duchy of Grand Fenwick and its war against the United States, was presented to a capacity crowd in the Junior High auditorium.

"Now, Listen, Gloriana"

RIGHT: Count Mountjoy, portrayed by Dave Miller, is the leader of the anti-dilutionist party and is staunchly opposed to watering Grand Fenwick's only export, Pinot Grand Fenwick, an expensive wine. Mr. Benter, or Ken Scott, Head of the Dilutionist Party, is in favor of watering the wine to save the Duchy from bankruptcy.

Listening to both opinions at once is Queen Gloriana the Twelfth, or Judy James, who becomes very bewildered about the whole situation.

Deadly "Q" Bomb Invented

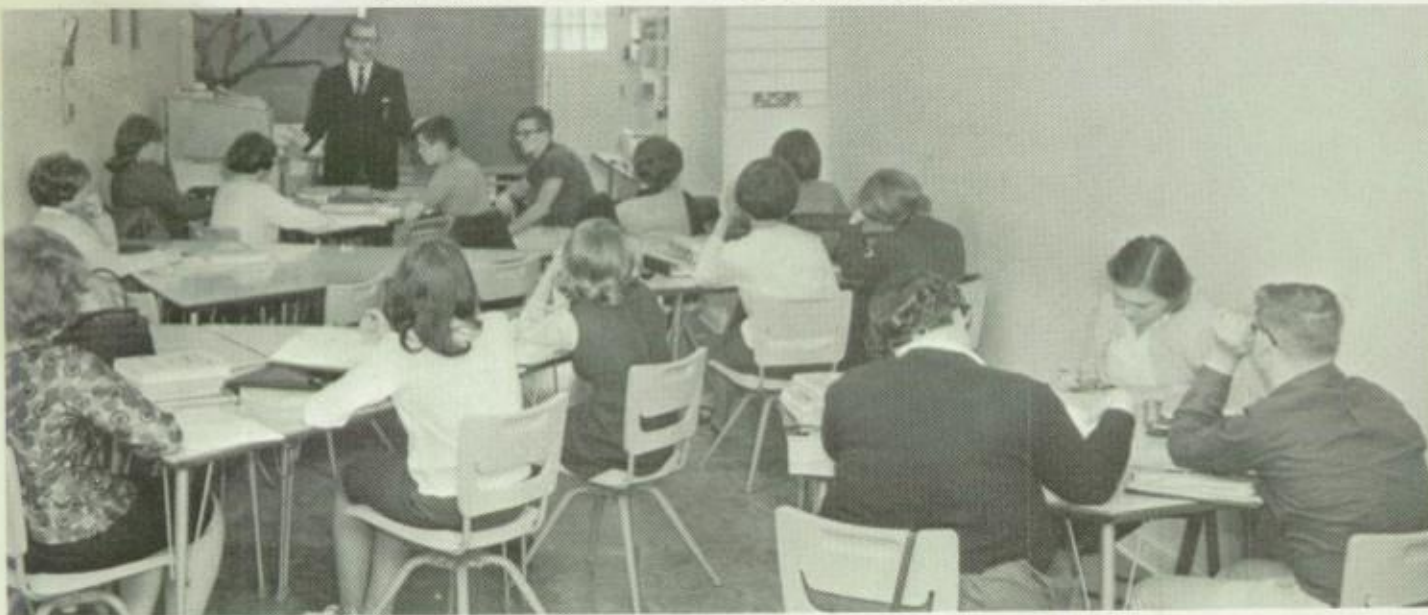

LEFT: Jim Brant, Gordon Miller and Ron James are loyal soldiers of the king. They have been put in charge of the "Q" bomb, a most powerful weapon developed by Professor Kokintz portrayed by David Mulder. Kokintz and General Snippet, head of the United States security and assumed by Roger Bayness, are prisoners of Grand Fenwick

The sophomore class, having been jostled from its place as leaders in junior high to the lowly status of underclassmen at senior high, have given OCHS a new pep and vitality. Ninety-four boys and ninety girls make up the large 184 member class of 1968. Their bright and eager faces are becoming familiar to everyone, and remarks are made about the happiness of having such a talented class gracing the halls.

IOB ROW ONE: Steve Chase, Jim Doty, Paul Felix, Shelly Droste, Ellen Gerstenberger, Sandy Hanson, Beth Hanson. Class duties assigned to the tenth grade at OCHS are decorating the halls for Homecoming. This year crepe paper was streamed through each and every hall in the colors purple and gold. Huge letters covered in tin foil spelled the word victory. Getting into the Homecoming "swing of things" was much easier with decorations such as these.

Baccalaureate and Commencement decorations and ushering duties are given to the sophomore class. The sophomore class officers also attend prom and they check coats.

LOCKER

To be an athlete requires discipline. Agility, poise, perseverance, cooperation, judgment and respect are substances of mind. To put them into practice on the field, mat, court or track is to embody sportsmanship. Success in sports is more than contests it won; signifies a working partnership of body and mind.

center for the Huskies, (52) gets high above everyone else and scores on a tip-in.

Prospects Bright for Next Year

Action Filled Moments Prevail

LEFT: Chuck Gardner and Terry Granneman go up to block a shot in the game with Cresco. Huskies won this thriller in an overtime to a capacity crowd.

First Year at O.C.H.S.

Wrestling Future Also Bright

LEFT: Sophomore Bruce Sperry, 112 pounder, drives his man into the mat in a dual meet with Columbus. The wrestlers hold their practices in the physical education room at the high school after school every night. Wrestling meets are held at the junior high gym, but this will not be true any longer. Next year our new gymnasium will be in use for all athletics. BELOW: Don, 95 pounder, Reisner has everything just about wrapped up in his match. Five points for the good guys!

Many Will Be Back . .

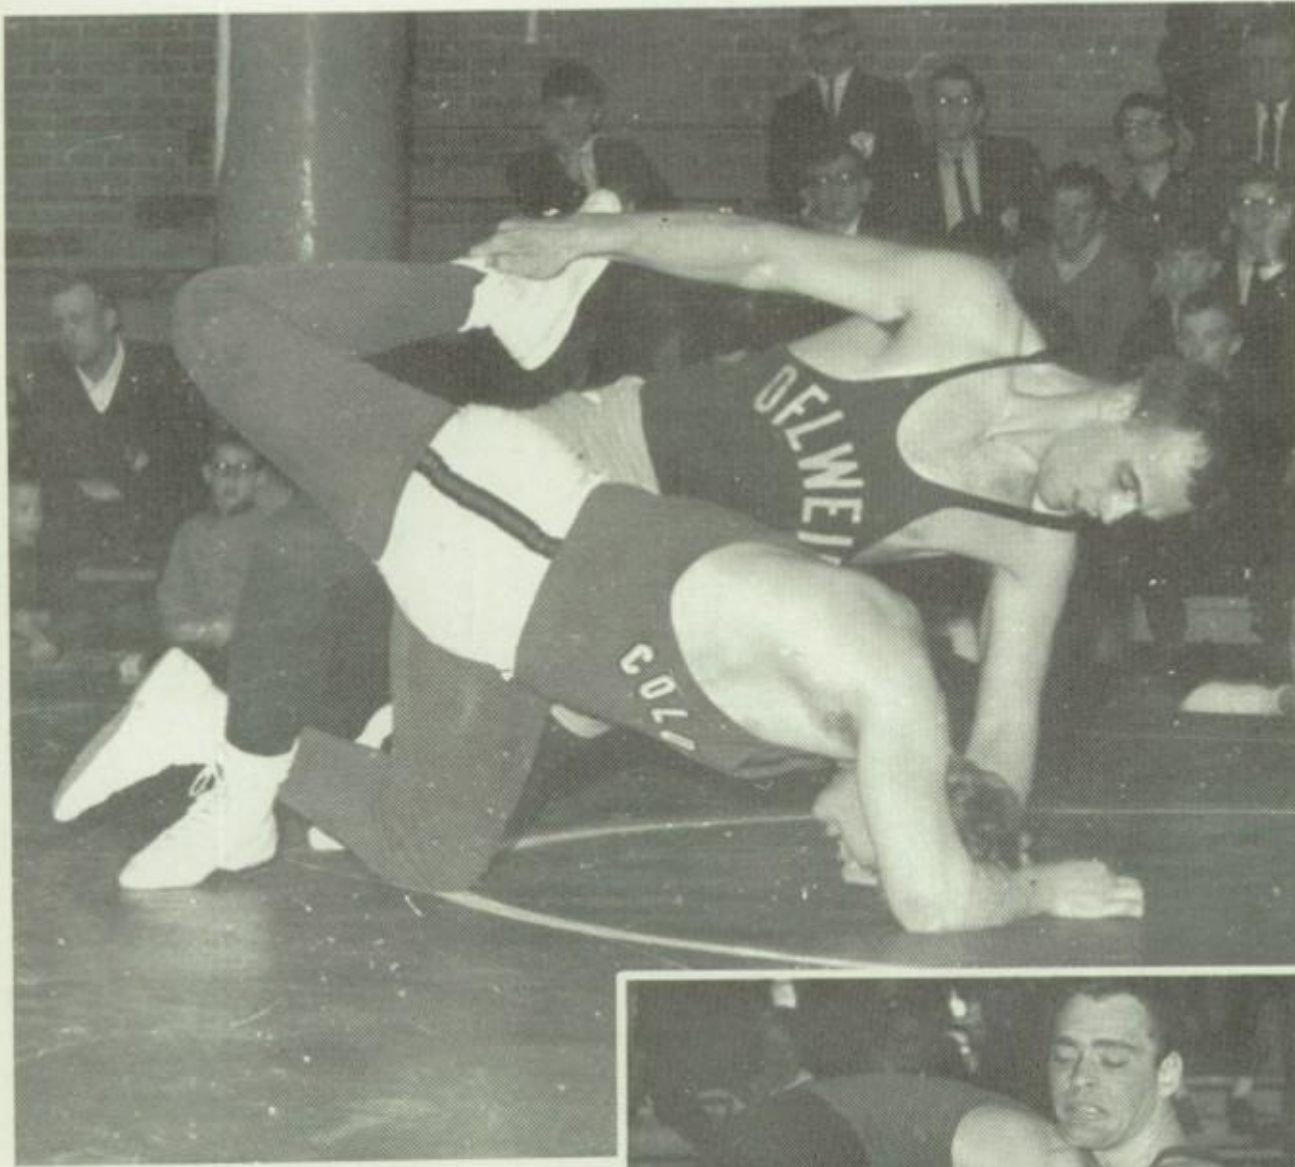

ABOVE: Senior Dennis Welsh, wrestling at 133 pounds this season, tangles with his opponent on the edge of the mat. Dennis and his fellow teammates improved their season record over last year. The new coach for wrestling in his first year at OCHS is Mr. Richard Hausrath. RIGHT: Bruce Sperry makes his move to get on top in the first meet of the year against Manchester.

The Grapplers Take 'em Down . . .

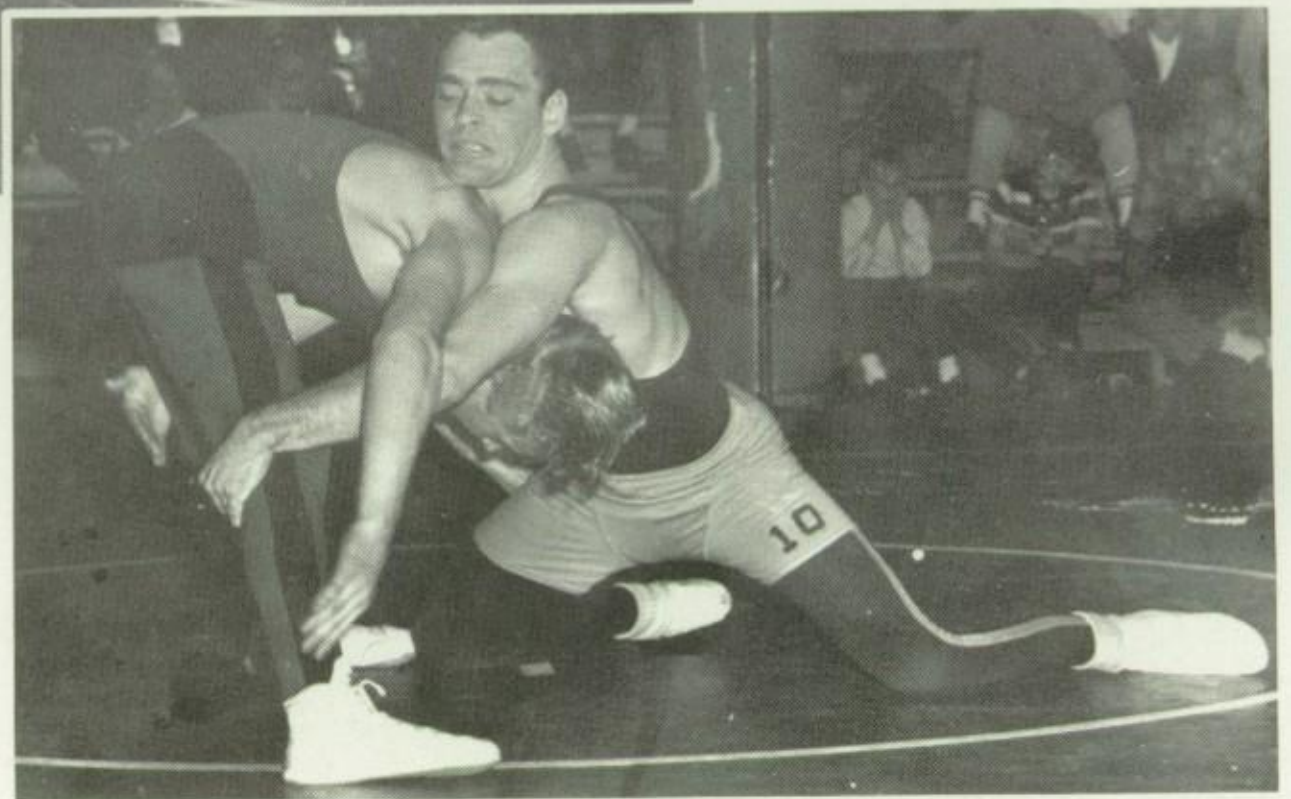

Practice Pays Off --

LEFT: Don Barker, senior grappler, seems to have good control over his man in the meet with Columbus of Waterloo. Don wrestled at 180 pounds sometimes and heavy-weight the rest of the time for the Huskies.

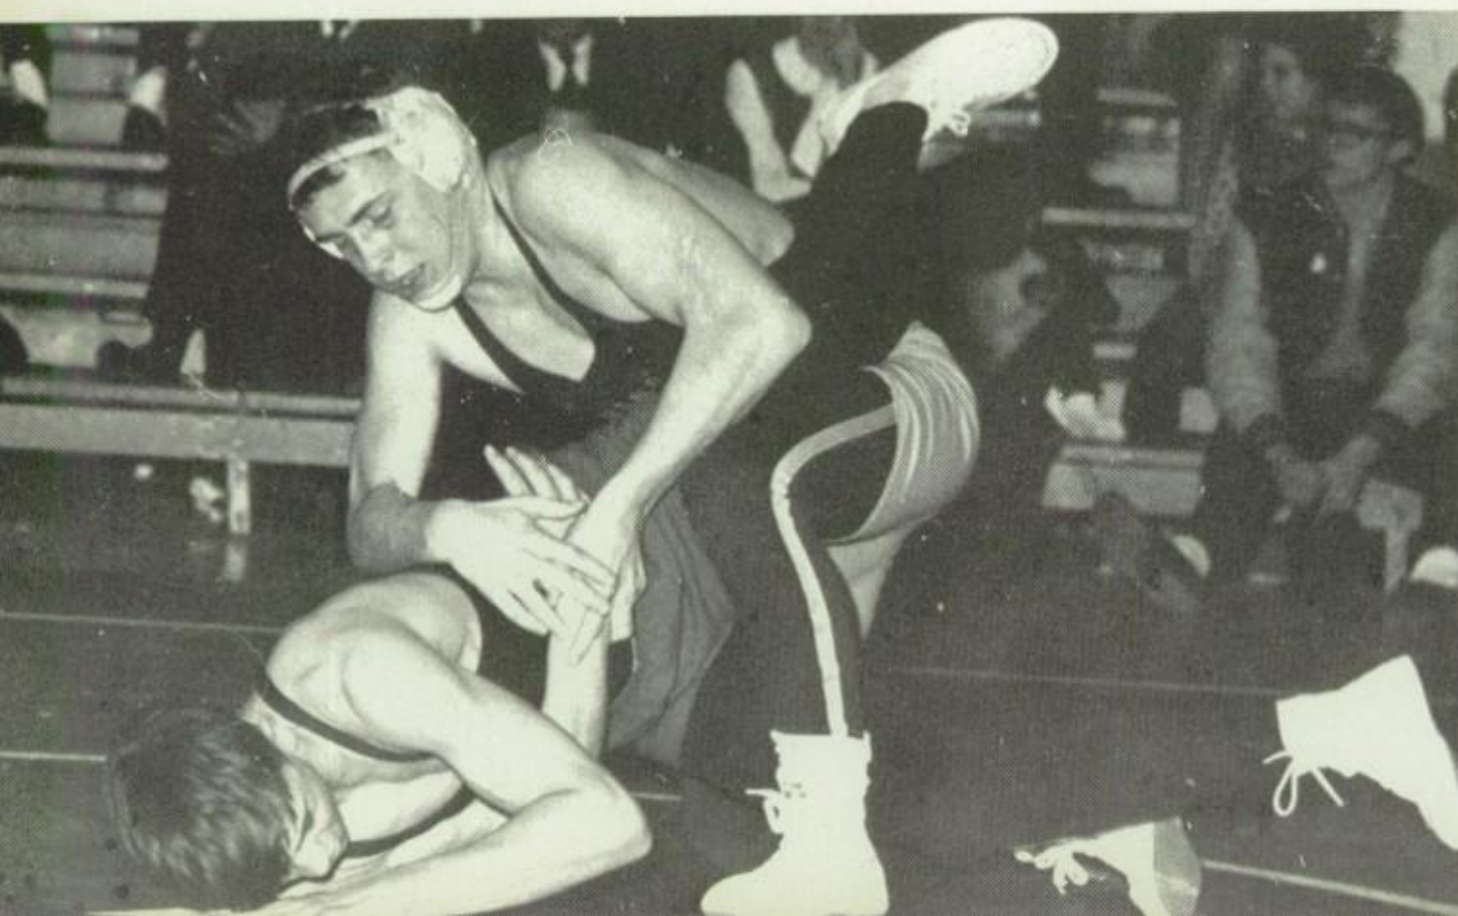

Efforts Worthwhile

RIGHT: 165 pounder Steve Thode, senior, puts the clamps on his opponent and it does not appear that the poor fellow will escape it either. Steve is a veteran varsity wrestler.

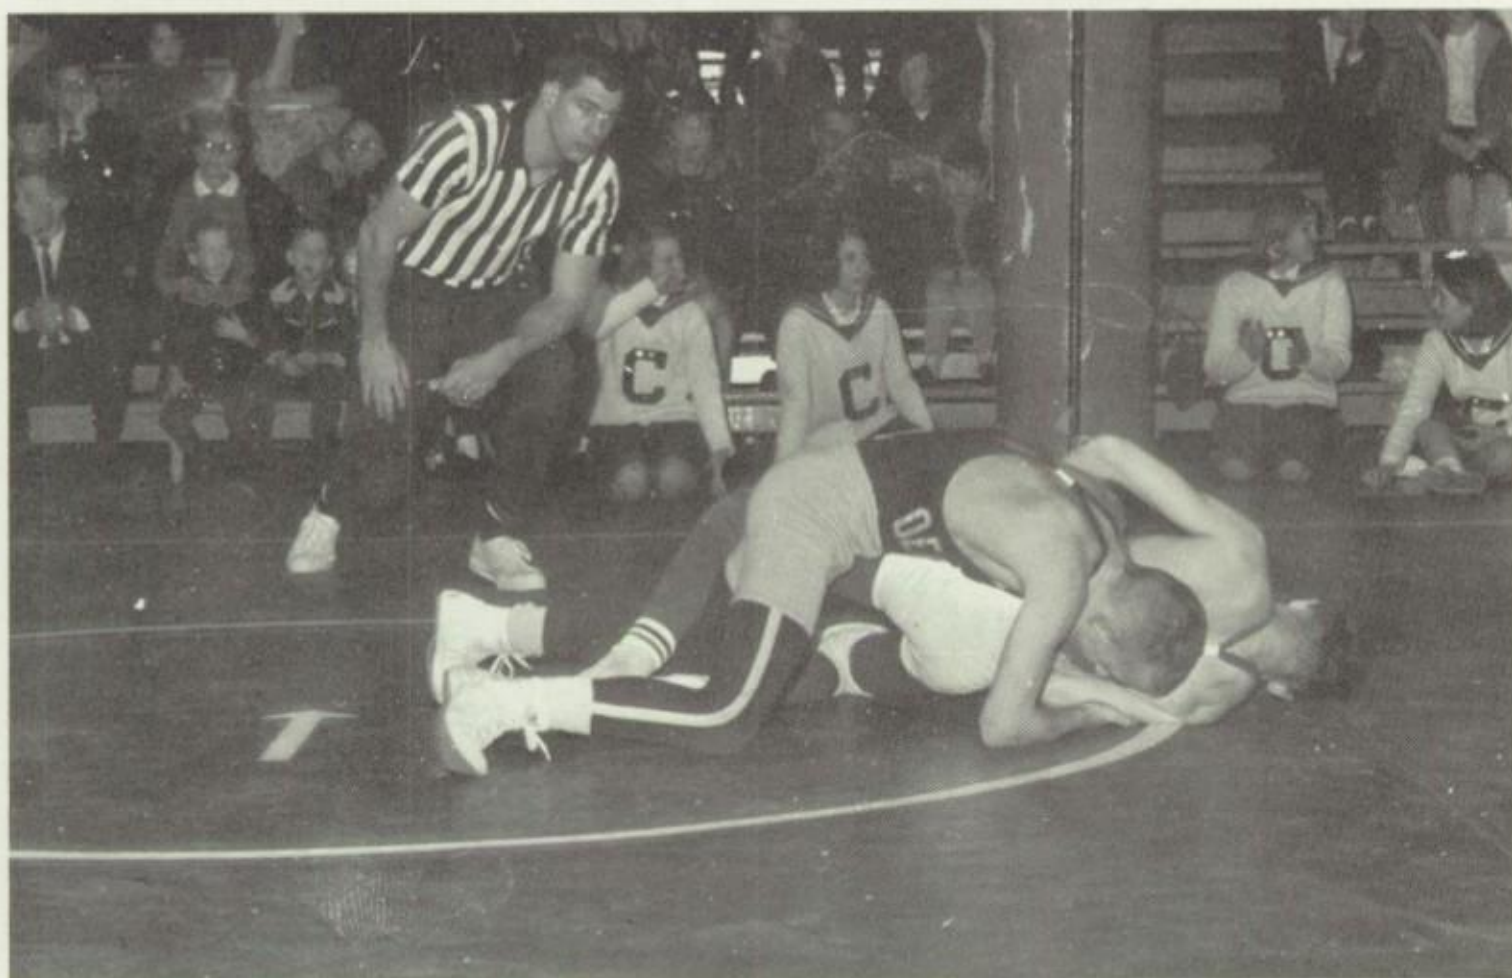

to Produce Outstanding Wrestlers

LEFT: Dennis Welsh is about to "show 'em the light" in one of the Huskies dual meets. No relief is in sight for this unlucky guy. Dennis, a senior, has had previous varsity experience.

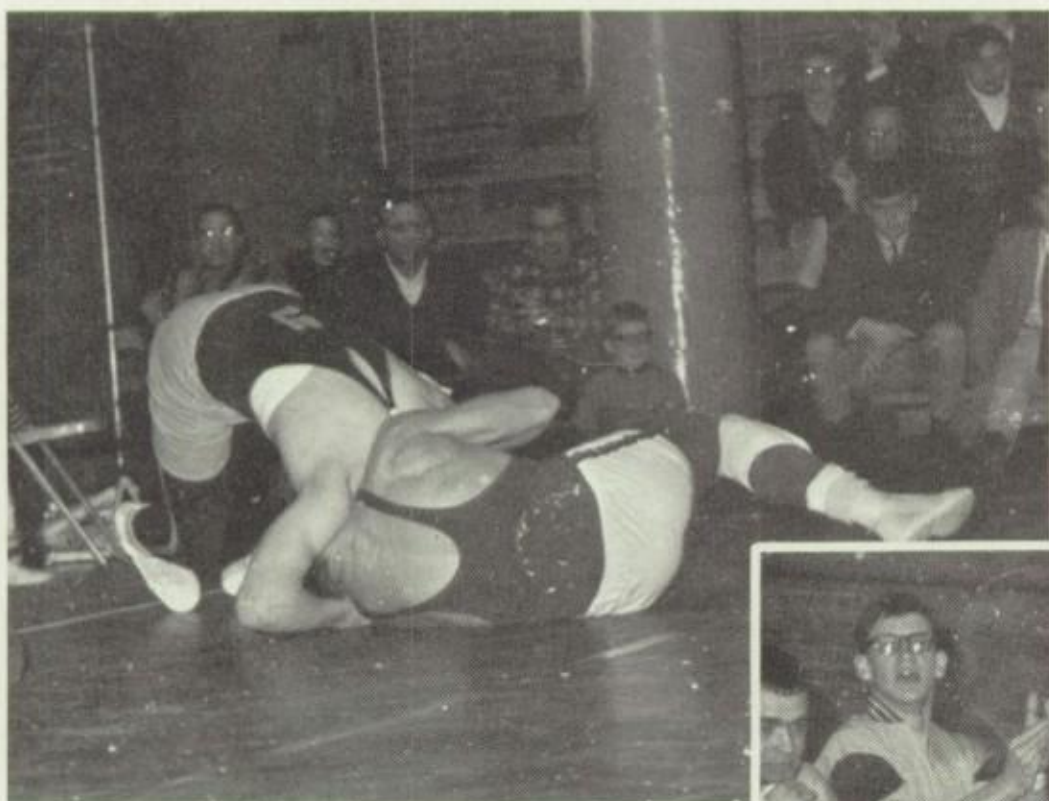

... Then Stay On Top ...

LEFT: Sophomore 95 pounder Don Reisner tangles with his man and attempts to gain control over him. Don was also a varsity wrestler when he was a freshman.

In the Northeast Iowa Conference at Decorah, Don Barker placed second and Gary Lau came in fourth.

LEFT: It's Gary Lau (believe it or not) who wrestles at 154 pounds for the Huskies. He seems to be in quite a predicament here. Gary has one more year left for wrestling. BELOW: Veteran wrestler Dennis Welsh at 133 pounds give a thrill to Husky fans as he applies pressure to his opponents. Coach Hausrath seems to approve of the action.

The starting lineup for the wrestlers included the following: 95-Don Reisner, 103-Ron Reisner, 112-Doug Moritz, 120-Bruce Sperry, 127-Dan Welsh, 133-Dennis Welsh, 138-Jim Hennager, 145-Herb Swarts, 154-Gary Lau, 165-Steve Thode, 180-Don Barker and heavyweight Monte Barker.

Office Staff

The Office staff and the Library staff are made up of students from the ninth grade. The duties of the office staff are to pick up attendance slips, work in the office, and run errands for Mr. Ramsay. A different student works each hour. The library staff devotes their time to checking in the books, checking out books, and putting books away. They help Mrs. Scovel with many duties. The members work before and after school and during their study halls.

With big smiles and great presicion the Huskettes kick up to the tune of "In the Mood."

Those little devils!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

The High Stepping Huskettes Perform

The Huskettes, a precision dance team, consists of 26 girls from the seventh, eighth and ninth grades. They perform at numerous basketball games and other events through out the state. Their instructor, Miss Ethyl Oberfell, chooses the best qualified from over a hundred girls after watching them perform various basic steps. Qualifications for the team are high scholastic standings and a great deal of outstanding character and personal attributes. The girls, after being chosen, work long, hard hours to acquire the physical agility which they exhibit in their terrific performances. This year the girls began their performance with "Hello My Honey", followed by "Downtown". Next the girls split into three groups and gave the weather report for the South, North and West. This was followed by "In the Mood" and the closing routine was "Boogie-woogie."

Joan Dawson and Terri Hartung prepare to start their routine - the weather report for the West - "It's Hotter than !!!!!!!"

Debbie Borland gives a big smile after ending the opening number "Hello My Honey".

The Huskettes looked brighter then ever in their crisp new uniforms trimmed with red and white strips.

Seniors Remember Years Gone by. . .

What is a senior? How does a senior feel during his last year of high school? These questions are only answered when you finally become an upperclassman and realize what being a senior means... the last homecoming... harvest ball... senior pictures... pep rally... and prom. At no other time in our lives will these emotions be felt in this same way by the graduating class of 1966.

During these high school years, we made true and lasting friendships with other classmates. As teenagers we developed into mature young adults. We made plans for the future in anticipation. When our last year finally came to an end, we had a feeling of sadness inside. We were leaving a life known so well and one we truly enjoyed. No longer would we greet our friends daily in the halls of OCHS. We were all going our own separate pathways. No more would we be students of OCHS, but now we would become alumni. Those days of high school would be gone forever, but the memories and wonderful experiences we would never forget---just treasure.

WHEN SHOULD YOU GIVE A DIAMOND?

Diamonds long have symbolized the token of undying love. However, diamonds are appropriate on other occasions, too: when a child is born, to mark a special achievement, to a loved daughter upon reaching womanhood. Because we are members of the American Gem Society our gem knowledge can be your assurance of a diamond that will suit you, your beloved and your budget.

Dearest John -
Hi ole buddy! What would
I ever 'done without your intelligence!!
HA! HA! No, I'm only teasing but you were a great help! Thanks!
You're a swell kid! Don't ever change!
Love ya
Carolyn!

Hi John!!!
School is (was) really a blast this year!! I sure hope
next is as much fun!
I didn't have many classes but you sure were a real help!
from ch. lit sure was sweet. You're a really good to carry a smile on your face. Keep it there!!!
Love,
Linda

John,
We're only gettin' you
Be good and fun!!
Don't
be of summer!
Love

Dear Johnny:
It sure has been fun in Spanish this year. I never thought I'd make it.
I was surprised that you passed physics!
It's been nice knowing "Al Hirt the second!"
Zavy

John, I had a lot of fun this year in Chemistry. & going to see you on the last test this year. Can't wait for Sunday school to start again so you can give the lesson. Good luck in the future you'll need it in physics. I cote

Dear Sir
 I have been thinking of writing you for some time but have been so busy that I could not find time. I am now in the city and I hope to be home in a few days. I am well and hope you are the same.
 I am, Sir, very respectfully,

John
Well its been a good year for both of us. But not to long from now I'm planning to escape. You too!
Keep going,
Ron

John,
Man, I've been keepin' down over the years since I've lost. And it was from Ron of luck always to avoid sweet guy.
Be fast this summer (or 9)
